About the Institution

Vikramajeet Singh Sanatan Dharm College, Kanpur

Late Rai Bahadur Babu Vikramajit Singh (1874-1942) was a brilliant scholar, social activist and a leading legal luminary of the city of Kanpur. A Chairman of Kanpur Nagar Palika from 1925 to 1931, he was also the member of the Legislative Council of United Province. The parent body of the institute Sri Brahmavart Sanatan Dharm Mahamandal had him as its President from 1916 to 1941. The college was inaugurated in July 1921 as Sanatan Dharma College of Commerce, Kanpur. It was in the year 1975 that the College was renamed as Vikramajit Singh Sanatan Dharma College (V.S.S.D. College) in the memory of its dynamic founder Rai Bahadur Babu Vikramajit Singh. Since its inception, the institution had the opportunity to have the able guidance of Mahamana Madan Mohan Malviya Ji and the blessings of Swami Dayanand Ji. Having a campus area of 72 acres, the college presently runs various Post- Graduate and Under Graduate courses in various disciplines namely Arts, Commerce, Education, Law, Physical Education and Science.

To render quality higher education with Sanatan Values, the college was established in 1921 under the auspices of Shri Brahmavart Sanatan Dharma Mahamandal. The Foundation stone of the college was laid by the then Lieutenant Governor of United Province, Sir Spencer Harcourt Butler on 1st March, 1920 in the presence of Rai Bahadur Babu Vikramajit Singh.

About the Conference

The survival of the Higher Education System in Universities and Colleges and its Libraries both in the long term depends on its economic feasibility, commitment with the environmental sustainability and socially responsible performance in the changing scenario of information society. Emerging information technologies and changing needs of users, their expectations have made the library and information science as one of the most exciting profession. There is no doubt that is providing endless opportunity for the LIS incumbents. New job rules have emerged in libraries to meet the every changing information landscape; librarians are now working as knowledge managers, internet librarians and information scientist. Concept of equal opportunity indicates role of libraries to ensure right information to right user.
